Tom Sietsema of the Washington Post, who named Anju #9 in his Fall Dining guide, says: "Right out of the gate, Anju is among the most exciting restaurants to open this year...it would be easy to graze the night away with panchan...Forge on. Anju might be serving the best mandu in the region..."

Ann Limpert of Washingtonian Magazine says, "The team...has created a boundary-pushing kaleidoscopic tour through Korean cuisine....We've still got time left in 2019, but if there's a restaurant of the year, this is it."

By participating in a Chaîne des Rôtisseurs activity, members and guests implicitly grant permission and hold harmless the Chaîne des Rôtisseurs to use their likeness and the likenesses of their guests in photographs and video in all its publications and any and all other media, without compensation.

Please note that all attendees other than the DC Chaîne Member and his or her first guest must pay the guest price, even if they are members of another Chaîne Bailliage. This is because the local dues of the DC Chaîne subsidize the cost of the wine and overhead for events, resulting in a lower price for DC Bailliage members. If you have any questions about how much to pay for an event, please contact Bailli Judy Mazza at 301-469-0352 or bailli@laChaineDC.com, or Argentier David Burka at 202-232-2301 or Argentier@laChaineDC.com.
