BUBBLES AND BAKING ON BASTILLE DAY
TUESDAY, JULY 14, 2020 6:00 PM

Limited Availability, RSVP before July 7th

Join the Bailliage of Greater Washington on Zoom as we celebrate Bastille Day with an evening of camaraderie, Champagne, and fresh-baked madeleines in a live, on-line class with Chef Patrice Olivon, the creator and chef instructor of <https://Cooking-Live.com>.

Chef Olivon is one of the most successful and well-known chefs in America, with a career that has spanned more than four decades. He has cooked for the White House, served as Executive Chef at the French Embassy, and been the chef at leading French restaurants in Washington, D.C. He is an enthusiastic ambassador of the culinary arts to home chefs, and taught hundreds of culinary professionals while Program Director at L'Academie de Cuisine. He has competed on prize-winning teams on the Food Network and has appeared in cooking demonstrations at the nation's top culinary festivals.

Everything you need for the class will be delivered (contactlessly) to your home in the DC Metro area late in the day or early evening July 13th. The box will contain: (1) a bottle of Feuillatte Brut Blue Label Champagne; (2) an already-baked selection of assorted flavor madeleines with two dipping sauces (Nutella and home-made jam); (3) batter ready to pipe and bake 36 madeleines; (4) a non-stick madeleine pan; (5) pre-measured ingredients to make madeleine batter together during our Zoom session; and (6) complete instructions. Madeleine batter needs to rest overnight, so you can use what we make together to bake fresh madeleines at your convenience a day or two after the class. Note that some of the contents of the box will need to be refrigerated upon receipt.

We will record the Zoom session and make it available to registrants after the class is over.
