

The Bailliage of Greater Washington, DC invites you to join us in an authentic Filipino Extravaganza

CELEBRATE THE NEW YEAR WITH A 12 COURSE KINAMOT FEAST FROM KUYA JA'S LECHON BELLY!

Monday January 11, 2021 7:00 PM via Zoom

Limited Availability, RSVP by noon on December 31, 2021 (or until sold out)

Join the Bailliage of Greater Washington on Zoom as we gather on-line to welcome 2021 with a spectacular delivered feast by Chef Javier Fernandez. Known as Kinamot, this 12-course meal (including 2 desserts) is served on a bed of banana leaves and white rice and is typically eaten with your hands! It is a food experience which embodies the "food is love" ethos of the Philippines. Dessert is by Kuya Ja's sister restaurant Gwenie's Pastries.

"The name tells you what to order...slow-cooked pork that gets its savor from lemongrass, pineapple and garlic ... its sound effects from mahogany skin that breaks apart like glass." Tom Sietsema, Washington Post

Each order will have enough food for at least two people (or two+ meals for one person) and will be accompanied by a bottle of wine selected from the D.C. Chaîne's wine cellar. It will be delivered to your home between 2 and 5 pm on Monday, January 11th. Instructions for re-heating (you will need an oven) will be included. Due to the great variety of food included in the Kinamot we cannot accommodate any special dietary requests for this event. The meal includes roasted pork, fish, chicken, shellfish (shrimp), peanuts, vegetables, and various sauces among numerous other elements. Chef Fernandez will join us on Zoom to discuss his cuisine and answer your questions.

This dinner can only be delivered to Chaîne members and guests in the Washington, D.C. metro area.
